

CHOCTAW COUNTY HAS BAD TORNADO

Three Killed in Storm in Southeast Part of the State.

A HUGE LOSS OF PROPERTY

Kiamichi River Bridge and Many Buildings Totally Wrecked.

HUGO, Oct. 11.—The tornado which swept this and adjoining counties this week has taken a toll of at least three lives and nearly half a million dollars in property loss, according to reports that have reached here somewhat slowly on account of all communicating lines having been wrecked or badly demoralized.

The steel bridge across the Kiamichi river, between Fort Towson and Bradwell, was lifted off its foundations by the great force of the wind and dumped into the river.

J. G. Hatcher and his mother were killed at Hugo, and Hatcher's wife and children severely injured when the twister struck their home. Many other houses in the city are reported to have been wrecked.

Mrs. E. F. Eldridge of Hugo was killed at Arthur City, Texas, when the storm hit that town on its way northward. Mrs. Eldridge had been visiting relatives there.

The homes of L. D. Hankins and T. E. Rogers, at Muskogee, near here, were completely wrecked and the store of W. M. Bearden, with its entire stock, was picked up and scattered for miles over the country.

Spencerville is reported to have suffered heavy damages to buildings, but no loss of life is reported.

FARMERS CANNOT STORE VEGETABLES IN BANKS

Why is it that vegetables and fruit in Oklahoma will not keep in dirt storage as they do in Missouri and other northern states?

This is a question that has been frequently asked of the county farm agents in this state, according to George S. Vincent, district agent for northeastern Oklahoma.

Vincent and John S. Malone, county agent of Tulsa county, say that there appears to be a bacteria in Oklahoma soil that tends to rot and spoil farm products, while back in the older states vegetables and fruits take on a mellow flavor after being stored in a dirt bank.

Prohibition Before Supreme Court.

Special to The World. OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 11.—The chief justice of the supreme court announced this morning that oral arguments on the question of the validity of the referendum petition filed on the resolution passed by the last legislature, ratifying the prohibition amendment, will be heard in the supreme court next Tuesday.

"When the Law Takes Its Course"

This is a new interesting booklet we have just issued in an effort to inform men and women of Tulsa of the dangers to an estate when the head of a family dies without a will. It should be of vital interest to every father and mother. We want you to have a copy. Are you interested enough to request one in person or by mail?

STATE BRIEFS

SKIAPOOK, Oct. 11.—The Rev. John Fred Heider, who recently assumed the pastorate of the Baptist church here, has occupied pulpits in many countries. A native of England, he has done religious work in Africa and Asia.

COALTON, Oct. 11.—Coalton was the scene of another tragedy night before last. Charles Fields being instantly killed by a load of shot from a shotgun in his side. E. M. Thirtle, known among the others as "Jim," was locked up charged with the crime.

HENRYETTA, Oct. 11.—The day in the case of the state of Oklahoma vs. M. Wilmouth, charged with killing Henry Simpson, near Rich Hill, last March, after deliberating four hours, rendered a verdict of manslaughter, and affixed the punishment at four and a half years in the penitentiary.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 11.—Oklahoma City's offer of $25,000 to be used by the Odd Fellows in the erection of a temple here, was made through the chamber of commerce committee yesterday. The local lodge of the order, already own property valued at $15,000 in the city, which added to the donated funds would give a building fund of $70,000 to start with.

ANNUAL SALES MEETING OF HOFSTRA CO. MONDAY

Twenty salesman representing the Hofstra Manufacturing company and covering nearly all the states of the union will assemble in Tulsa tomorrow for the annual sales meeting.

In preparation, J. Burr Gibbons, president of the company, has arranged a three-day program which includes a banquet every evening, the final dinner to be attended by every member of the Hofstra family at the Hotel Tulsa. The salesmen have been invited to attend the meeting of the Ad club Tuesday and the Rotary club Wednesday.

The business sessions will be addressed by several prominent speakers, including E. K. Massey, manager of the Williamson-Halsell-Frazier Co., of Oklahoma City; Shelley E. Tracey, president of the Southwestern Advertising Co., Oklahoma City; Rev. L. S. Barton, E. S. Horn of the Ralph Development Co.; C. E. Buchner, president of the Rotary club; Horace H. Hagan of Joe Carson Post and W. H. Gullerson.

"FRESHMAN FRIDAY" IS A HUGE SUCCESS

One Thousand First Year Students Stage Parade, Football Game, Picnic and Monster Dance.

Special to The World. NORMAN, Oct. 11.—Members of the freshmen class owned the University of Oklahoma for one-half day yesterday when the annual "Freshman Friday" was celebrated by 1,000 members of the class. A parade, picnic on the campus, football game between the freshmen team and Norman high school and a dance in the evening featured the afternoon.

The parade formed on the oval and marched to town and back. Emily Smith, Muskogee, queen of the class, led the procession in the royal car, attended by Maurice Marr, Oklahoma City, and Joe McGraw, Ponca City, guards of honor, Harry Melton, Mangum, court jester, and Olga Hobo, Norman, and J. D. McGuire, Norman, drivers of the car.

Thirty freshmen "vigilantes" appointed to enforce the "red cap" regulations this fall, also accompanied the queen as guard of honor. They were followed by the university band of 82 pieces and the other freshmen marching in column of squads.

Apples, oranges, sticks of candy, bottles of pop, sacks of popcorn, packages of peanuts and ham sandwiches, 1,000 of each, made up the "feats." Both floors of a new dance hall were rented for the "hop."

FORT SMITH STILL TIED UP

Printers and Newspapers and Job Shops Unable to Agree.

FORT SMITH, Oct. 11.—Fort Smith tonight entered upon its second week of the printers' strike and the city is still without local newspapers which have not published since Saturday when the strike became effective.

T. A. Wilson of Little Rock, state labor commissioner, arrived here today to offer his services in the hope of bringing about a settlement.

Bakery Employees Banquet. Employees of the Campbell baking company were the guests at a get-together dinner given at Hotel Tulsa last night. Toasts, speeches and music served to cement the feeling between the 30 members of the "Campbell family" present.

After the banquet the party went to the company's plant at 409 South Fifth street, where they danced to the strains of a big jazz band until a late hour. The formal opening of the new bakery will be announced in a short time.

John Jenkins Bound Over. Special to The World. OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 11.—John Jenkins, alleged to have received $500 stolen from the First State bank here last January, entered a plea of not guilty at his preliminary hearing today and was held to the district court on a $25,000 bond.

In the handle of a new screwdriver he mounted a dry battery flash light to facilitate its use in dark places.

NOVEMBER SECOND TO BE A RED CROSS DAY

Roll Call Campaign to Begin the 2d. and End on "Armistice" Day With Proper Services.

Special to The World. OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 11.—Churches throughout Oklahoma are to observe Sunday, November 2, as Red Cross Sunday. Ministers of all denominations will co-operate with the annual Red Cross roll call membership campaign by devoting all or a part of their Sunday services to the Red Cross.

The roll call campaign begins November 2 this year, and ends "Armistice day," November 11. That a patriotic service appropriate to the observance of Armistice day be arranged for Red Cross Sunday is the suggestion of J. E. Owens, state campaign chairman.

Ministers are expected to tell not only of what the Red Cross has done but to outline its peace-time program which will make the Red Cross an active factor for better health and living conditions in every community.

You executives will see the advantages of our three stores

YOU know the economy of buying in large quantities—the advantages of ample capital to discount your bills—the benefits to your customers of great varieties of goods. These advantages have come to us in greater measure this year than ever before. Our three stores are the largest distributors of men's and boys' clothes in Oklahoma.

YOU know what that means when it comes to a question of buying goods. Makers are eager to have us handle their products, and they know that they must deliver the goods on time—that no stinting of quality, or workmanship will be permitted if they wish us to continue selling their goods. With these facts in mind, isn't this the logical store for your new fall clothes?

The new fall styles

YOU can see ALL the correct fall styles here now. Styles for young fellows of high school and college age, styles for young men in business, styles for executives and professional men. And you won't see any but the best of the new ones here.

SOME with belts of many different kinds, others without belts or extreme effects of any kind. Still others for big men, stout men, tall men, slender men and short men. Come now and see how well you can be fitted at $35 up.
